

This beautifully honest, emotionally resonant debut tells the story of a girl, her brother with special needs, and the summer they will never forget.

Since her father's death, Cat has taken care of her brother, Chicken, for their hardworking mother—but on an unexpected island trip to visit grandparents they never knew, Cat has the chance to be a child again.

“An engaging, honest book.”
—Kimberly Brubaker Bradley,
Newbery Honor-winning author of
The War That Saved My Life

“A beautiful story of family, forgiveness, life on an island, and growing up.”
—Kate Messner,
author of Breakout and The Seventh Wish

Ideal for grades 3-7

GILLIAN MCDUNN loves visiting schools. At your school, she will share her writing process, the way she crafts memorable characters, and how her love for the North Carolina coast inspired her book's setting.

PRESENTATIONS

Presentations are warm, fun, and informative. All sessions allow for Q&A time at the end.

From Idea to the Page

Gillian explains how she gets her ideas, how she plans her stories, and why revision is magic.

*Audience size: Assembly or classroom-size group
45-60 minutes*

Writing Workshops

Students explore the craft of writing with the following hands-on writing workshops:

- Creating Great Characters
- Making a Memorable Setting
- Fantastic First Lines

*Audience size: Maximum 45 students
45-60 minutes*

CUSTOMIZE YOUR VISIT

- Half-day visits consist of a single presentation, up to one hour.
- Full-day visits include up to three presentations, up to one hour each.

About the Author

A native Californian, Gillian McDunn has lived 10 minutes from Disneyland, 6 minutes from the Golden Gate Bridge, 15 minutes from the San Diego Zoo, 21 minutes from the St. Louis Arch, and currently lives 2 hours and 37 minutes from her favorite beach—Topsail Island, North Carolina.

I've been to a lot of author talks, but Gillian McDunn's was my favorite ever.
